

Children's Acknowledgement

At KingKids the educators in each room like to incorporate the Children's Acknowledgement in our daily practice. At 9am - 9:30am each day the educators and children sit down and participate in the Acknowledgement. Below is the Children's Acknowledgement that we use daily at the centre:

'Here is the land.

Here is the Sky.

Here are my friends and here am I.

We thank the Wurundjeri People for the land on which we play and learn.

Hands up, hands down we're on Wurundjeri ground.'
