

At KingKids we have been exploring our interest in farm animals! Our interest began when we got our new chickens who we love watching and connecting with. Below are pictures of some of farm animals, using the pictures below focus on the sounds these animals make and watch the joy on your child's face!

